

October 23, 2017
Jupiter Telecommunications Co., Ltd.

J:COM SUBSCRIBER FIGURES (September 2017)

Total consolidated subsidiaries : 28 subsidiaries; 75 systems: (Rounded to the nearest hundred)

As of September 30, 2017	Homes Passed <sup>*1*2</sup>	21,294,800
	Subscribing Households	Cable Television	3,753,700
		High Speed Internet Access	3,531,500
		Telephony <sup>*3</sup>	3,787,900
	Total Subscribing Households <sup>*4</sup>	5,343,300

*1 The number of serviceable households or “homes passed” in J:COM franchise areas.

*2 Oita Cable Telecom Co., Ltd. Home Pass subscribers are included using its own calculations that differ from that of J:COM Group. When the calculations are unified to that of J:COM 's in the future, the above figures may change.

*3 Including the number of Cable-plus Phone service subscribers offered by YOKOHAMA CABLE VISION Inc.

*4 Number of households subscribing to one or more of J:COM's services

About Jupiter Telecommunications Co., Ltd.

Established in 1995, Jupiter Telecommunications Co., Ltd.(J:COM) is Japan's largest multiple system and multiple channel operator. In system operation, J:COM provides cable television, high speed Internet access, telephony, mobile, and electric power service to customers through 28 consolidated subsidiaries at the local level serving 5.34 million subscribing households in Sapporo, Sendai, Kanto, Kansai, and Kyushu-Yamaguchi regions. The number of serviceable households or “homes passed” in J:COM franchise areas is 21.29 million. In channel operation, J:COM invests in and operates 17 thematic channels which are provided to CATV, satellite and telecom operators.

※ The above household figures are as of September 30, 2017.